SWOT ANALYSIS

is a strategic planning technique used to help a person or organization identify strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, & threats related to business competition or project planning.

	HELPFUL	HARMFUL
INTERNAL	STRENGTHS What are your assets? (not equipment) | Which one of those assets is strongest? | What makes you better than similar sections? | Do you have a strong customer base? What is the unique thing about your section? | How skilled are your technicians? | What things are you praised for? | What are your advantages over other sections?	WEAKNESSES What areas do you need improvement in? | What are the things you need to avoid? | What areas do other sections have an advantage on? Are you lacking in knowledge? | Are your personnel not skilled enough? | Do you have enough resources to start the project?
INTERNAL	OPPORTUNITIES What external changes will bring your opportunities? | What are the current ongoing trends? | Will these trends affect you in a positive manner? What items can you provide for customers that you aren't already providing?	THREATS What are the negative aspects in your environment/workcenter? | What are the obstacles you are facing in the current mission? | Are you following all published guidelines & directives? | Are your members satisfied with their quality of life? | Do you see them separating from the AF?

  - What problem will the project solve?
  - What is the benefit to the organization?
  - What kind of staff & budget do I need?
  - What are the major milestones?
  - What are the potential stumbling blocks?
  - What risks does this project pose?
  - What is my work plan (list of tasks or sub-items to be completed by when)?
  - What are the specific metrics for success?
  - How will you know the project is done?
- Establish roles & communication routines with teammates
- Know if & when to quit.
  - Is the goal of this project still important to my organization?

PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE

Information below is provided for general informational purposes only. It should not be used as a substitute for consulting with the Legal Office and reviewing applicable regulations. The purpose of any action is to ensure that the undesired behavior is stopped and/or encourage the desired behavior. When deciding the appropriate action consideration of what is best for the following is helpful: Best for the AF, Best for the Unit, Best for the Airman. Take deliberate steps to consider the follow on effects of actions & how they will interact with other programs within the AF. Some examples include: referral evaluations prevent a promotion for an Enlisted member until a non-referral report is the most current, a UIF will prevent voluntary education benefits, etc.

This sheet is intended to facilitate "things to think or talk about" vs specific actions required until specifically indicated in governing regulations.

ADMINISTRATIVE ACTION CONSIDERATIONS

- Did the member volunteer misconduct information or was it ascertained a different way?
- Is there any prior misconduct? What is the frequency, Amount, Type, Level (e.g. Supervisor, Flight Chief, Sq Leadership) of previous progressive discipline?
- What is members duty history? TAFMSD, DAS, RNLTD, DEROS, DOR?
- Are there any duty related factors you should consider? | Duty Performance | Shift Dynamics & Experience with Situation | What was the impact of action to Unit, Flight, Shift, Etc. (ie equipment damage, lost time, etc.) | What will the result of the action taken have on Unit? (ie loss of skill level, etc.)
- Are there any personal related factors you should consider? | Relational Issues (Family & Extended Family) | Financial Issues)
- Was there further insight about the accused character from any character letters?
- Did the member reveal any further information through personal appearance or written response that you should consider?
- Does the misconduct require reporting to other agencies (e.g. ADAPT, FAP, EO, IG, SAPR, Security Manager)?
- Should you send member to TAP?

OTHER ADMINISTRATIVE MEASURES

- Security Clearance (Continuous Evaluation) — See Security Manager & CFR Title 32 Part 147
- Evaluations (Referral, CC Directed) — See 36-2406
- Promotion (Non-Rec[1], Deferment[1], Withhold[1], Demotion[1], Propriety[2]) — See [1]36-2502, [2]36-2501
- Denial of Re-Enlistment (AF 418) — See 36-2606
- Admin Separation (FA Fail, Failure to Adapt, Minor Disciplinary Infractions, Sexual Misconduct) — See 36-3208
- Officer Selection Record (Required for LOAs & above issued to Officers)

LOC, LOA, LOR CONSIDERATIONS

Issuing authorities, especially first-time supervisors, are encouraged to seek assistance from the supervisory chain, Senior Enlisted Leader, 1st Sgt, and/or Legal Office prior to administering RICs, LOCs, LOAs, or LORs

Per 36-2907 ¶ 2.4.2 Letter(s) must state: The reasons for the action, including what the member did or failed to do, citing specific incidents and their dates | Identify expected improvements to member, if appropriate | Inform member that further deviation may result in more severe action | RegAF will be allocated 3 duty days (current date plus 3 duty days) to acknowledge and provide response to issuing authority | The member's written response will become part of the record. | 6 - LOCs, LOAs and LORs will include and list as attachments: relevant statements, portions of investigations, and reports, and other documents that serve, in part or in whole, as the basis for the letter. Redact Privacy Act material and Personally Identifiable Information and mark, "For Official Use Only."

Commander's Responsibilities Per 36-2907 ¶ 5.2: Upon receipt finalized records commander will review: rank, age, gender, race, and ethnicity of both the issuer as listed in official AF record. CC will provide the following to SJA within 5 duty days: finalized record | substantiating documents | Issuer Information - Type of Administrative Action issued, final Administrative Action, underlying offense(s), rank, age, gender, race, and ethnicity of issuer | Recipient Information - Type of Administrative Action issued, number of prior Administrative Actions received, underlying offense(s), final Administrative Action, rank, age, gender, race, and ethnicity of recipient.

PUNISHMENT CONSIDERATIONS

- When does the members current enlistment expire? Is ETS & DOS the same date? Does the member have a DEROS?
- How will others in the unit view the punishment? Will the punishment deter this member and others from committing similar offenses?
- Make punishments mean something (difference in pay vs reduction, etc.)

Reduction in Rank:
- What impact(s) (e.g. loss of supervisory duties, skill level, etc.) will reduction in grade have on the unit? Are there any HYT considerations?
- Does the member have a Promotion Sequence Number ("Line #") to promote?
- How will reduction affect evaluations (e.g. Adjusted SCOD, future promotion eligibility)?

Restriction to Base:
- Consider if the accused MUST go off base for any reason (e.g. daycare, school, family, etc.)

Extra Duties:
- What impact (e.g. someone to supervise the accused, working weekends, etc.) will extra duties have on the section/unit?

Forfeiture of Pay:
- Is there a potential for any financial hardship?
- Should you place a "condition" (e.g. complete ADAPT or financial management classes) on the punishment?
- Is it appropriate to reduce in rank AND take additional pay?

NOTE: Consider plotting dates & milestones to visualize impacts of actions to identify 2nd & 3rd order affects (e.g. an Enlisted demotion could impact retirement pay, etc.). This should be utilized to assist member in developing plan to get back on track.

COURT MARTIAL (CM) TYPES

- Summary CM (Enlisted Only): Minor incidents of misconduct. Consists of one Officer. Max Punishment is considerably less than Special/General CM. The accused must consent to be tried by a Summary CM. Generally most effective when part of a plea agreement where the accused is pleading guilty. Does not count as "federal conviction."
- Special CM: Intermediate court level. Consists of a military judge, trial counsel, defense counsel and a minimum of 4 Officers sitting as a panel of court members or jury (Enlisted may request panel of at least 1/3 Enlisted) or accused may request trial by judge alone. Max Punishment is no more than 12 months confinement, forfeiture of 2/3 basic pay for 6 months, bad-conduct discharge (for Enlisted), and certain lesser punishments. An Officer accused in a Special CM cannot be dismissed from the service or confined. .
- General CM: Most serious level of military courts. Consists of a military judge, trial counsel, defense counsel and a minimum of 8 court members (Enlisted may request panel of at least 1/3 Enlisted) or accused may request trial by judge alone if death sentence can't be adjudged. Maximum Punishment is that established for each offense under the MCM (may include death, confinement, dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge for Enlisted, dismissal for Officers, or a number of lesser forms of punishment. A pre-trial investigation under Article 32, UCMJ, must be conducted before a case may be referred to a General CM, unless waived by the accused.

- Misconduct involving any of the following: Disloyalty to the USA, Foreign influence or preference, Sexual behavior, Personal & Criminal conduct, Finances, Alcohol consumption, Drug involvement, Emotional/Mental/Personality disorders, Security violations, Misuse of Information technology systems may require actions involving security clearances. See Security Manager & CFR Title 32 Part 147 Subpart A
- Additional actions are required for General Officers, General Officer Selects, Col's, Col Selects, CMSgts & CMSgt Selects that receive adverse administrative actions, LORs, Unfavorable Information Files & Summaries. Commanders must notify the IG of investigations on any Officer and any stand alone LOC, LOA, LOR issued to FGOs. See AFI 36-2907 ¶'s 2.4.5, 3.2.4.2 - 3.2.4.8, AFI 36-2608 ¶ 2.2.2.3.1 & AFI 90-301 ¶ 7.3 & Chapter 8 for more information.

PROMOTIONS

Promotion to Airman, Airman First Class and Senior Airman is based upon time. Airmen compete for promotion to SSgt and TSgt under the WAPS in the CAFSC held on the PECD. Airmen compete for promotion to MSgt, SMSgt and CMSgt through the SNCO Promotion Board. The USAF makes promotion selections under WAPS and the SNCO Promotion Board within each AFSC, not across all AFSCs. This means those who are eligible will compete for promotion with those individuals currently working in their AFSC. Selectees are individuals with the highest scores in each AFSC, within the quota limitations. If more than one individual has the same total score at the cutoff point, the USAF promotes everyone with that score.
